Capital Credit Union Donates Van to Rawhide Youth Services

Green Bay, Wis. – On Friday, June 28, Capital Credit Union donated a retired courier van to Rawhide Youth Services, a non-profit organization dedicated to transforming and inspiring young lives.

Rawhide Youth Services operates unique programs that provide youth with opportunities to learn different skill sets. By taking in donated vehicles, the organization is able to offer hands-on training opportunities that educate and empower young adults to work towards a positive future.

The van donated by the credit union will serve as a resource, enhancing the capabilities of Rawhide Youth Services to continue its mission.

"Instead of going to auction or finding another way to dispose of it, we wanted to find a way to put the vehicle to good use," says Lydia Lynch, AVP of Marketing at Capital Credit Union. "By donating the van to Rawhide, we know that we are providing a resource needed to help improve the life of a child or young adult in need."

With this donation, Capital Credit Union reinforces its dedication to community involvement and support for initiatives that make a significant difference in the lives of local youth.
